BY ENTERING AN EXHIBITOR AND ANIMAL IN THE DUCHESNE COUNTY LIVESTOCK SHOW IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO READ THESE RULES AND REGULATIONS!!!

DUCHESNE COUNTY FAIR

LIVESTOCK SHOW 2024

Rule Book

The Duchesne County Fair Livestock Committee reserves the final and absolute right to interpret all the rules and regulations, arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions, and differences, in regard to, arising out of, or connected with, the Duchesne County Fair Livestock Show, and the right to amend or add to these rules as it is determined necessary. An exhibitor who violates any of the rules will forfeit all privileges and premiums and will be subject to such penalty as the Livestock Committee may order.

All exhibitors will be under the control and direction of the Livestock Committee, but the Duchesne County Fair Livestock Committee, Duchesne County, Utah State University, or its officers, directors, agents, or employees will in no case be responsible for any loss, injury, or damage that may occur. Each exhibitor will be solely responsible for any loss, injury, or damage that may occur to him or his officers, agents, employees, or animal during the show. The exhibitor shall indemnify the show against any, and all legal proceedings, regarding the above and against damage or injury to any other person or property, caused by the exhibitor, his officers, agents, employees, or animal.

TO BE ELIGIBLE TO SHOW AT THE DUCHESNE COUNTY FAIR LIVESTOCK SHOW, THE FOLLOWING MUST BE COMPLETED:

- You Must live in Duchesne County or attend a Duchesne County School
- You must either be enrolled in 4H at 4h.zsuite.org with fees paid PRIOR to animal tagging, or be an FFA member and have approval of FFA Advisor with enrollment and fees completed prior to tagging.
- Your animal must be tagged before deadline(s). No Exceptions.
- You and your livestock project will be Completely entered, and fees paid on duchesnecountyfair.fairentry.com before June 13, 2024

Failure to do any of these things, will make you ineligible to participate in the Duchesne County Fair Livestock Show. No exceptions will be given!

- ALL ADULTS working with any Jr exhibitor are under an affirmative responsibility to do more than avoid improper or questionable acts. Their moral values must be SO certain and positive that those younger and more pliable will be influenced by their fine example.

- ALL YOUTH: exhibitors of livestock shall at ALL times deport themselves with honesty and good sportsmanship. Their conduct in this competitive environment shall ALWAYS reflect the highest standards of honor and dignity to promote the advancement of agriculture education.
- ANY exhibitor, family member, or persons associated with an exhibitor caught breaking the rules, mistreating animals, or involved in un-sportsman like conduct (this INCLUDES, both physical and verbal actions, in any Junior Livestock Show WILL BE BANNED from the Duchesne County Fair Livestock Show for at least one year, with up to a possible lifetime ban, if deemed necessary.
- Any animal that tests positive for illegal drugs, the exhibitor will receive a lifetime ban from the Duchesne County Fair Livestock Show and Sale. This is a one-strike, and you are out policy!
- Any exhibitor who vandalizes the area before the sale will be banned from the sale. Any vandalism committed by an exhibitor after the sale will result in the exhibitor being banned from participating in next year's show.
- It is ALL our duty to uphold the 4-H and FFA MOTTO'S:
 - 4-H MOTTO: "TO MAKE THE BEST BETTER."
 - FFA MOTTO: "Learning to do, doing to learn, earning to live, living to serve."

GENERAL LIVESTOCK RULES

All exhibitors are cautioned to carefully READ the following rules and regulations, as well as each division rules, they will be strictly enforced.

1. Judging of all market classes are open only to 4-H members and FFA members in good standing, enrolled in a Duchesne County 4-H Club or FFA Chapter.
2. Exhibitors need to live in Duchesne County OR attend a Duchesne County School.
3. For an animal to be judged, the exhibitor must be able to handle and control the animal, the exhibitor must be able to protect themselves, other exhibitors, and those watching the show. This will be determined and controlled by the Livestock Committee. Those animals not able to be controlled will be asked to be taken home.
4. Exhibitors must OWN their animals at the beginning of and throughout the feeding periods. Exhibitors must feed and care for animals daily. The exhibitor will own and possess his or her project for not less than 100 consecutive days for market beef and 60 consecutive days for market hogs, market lambs and market goats. No interruption of ownership or possession can occur. If this rule is NOT adhered to, an individual will not be allowed to show the animal(s).
 - a) Name change – If an animal has been shown in a market show in-state or out-of-state, it must be shown in the same exhibitor's name in all subsequent shows.

b) No animal shall be allowed to enter the Duchesne County Livestock Show and Sale that has been sold through any other Jr. Livestock Sale.

5. Market animals will be tagged to determine ownership. Market Beef by April 26, 2024. Market Lambs, Market Goats and Market Hogs by June 1, 2024. Entry forms and fees must be completed online at duchesnecountyfair.fairentry.com and are due by June 13, 2024. Entry fee is non-refundable. NO LATE ENTRIES WILL BE CONSIDERED. Contestants arriving at the show not registered in 4-H or FFA, with animals that were not tagged, entered properly on the fairentry.com site, with the wrong tag number reflected on the entry form or with a tampered with tag will NOT be eligible for the show.

6. No animal will be tagged unless the exhibitor is registered for the current 4-H year, and enrollment fees have been paid on 4h.zsuite.org or to the 4-H Extension Office. FFA members must also be registered through their FFA Advisor. All exhibitors, along with animals, must be registered by June 13, 2024, at duchesnecountyfair.fairentry.com.

a) Ear tags will be used throughout the show for identification purposes, therefore must be clean and present and NOT tampered with.

b) The Species Chairperson/Livestock Program Coordinator must be notified immediately if an ear tag is lost. The animal will be subject to review by such committee and may be subject to disqualification if deemed tampered with.

7. Exhibitors must accompany his/her animal at tagging, be present at weigh-ins, and at check-in.

8. If for any reason there is a question about the weight of any animal, the animal will be backed off the scale, the scale balanced, and the animal will be immediately re-weighed ONLY one more time on the same scale. NO time shall lapse between first and second weighing.

a) Only animals which are DRY and clean at weigh-in time will be permitted to cross the scales.

b) Lambs must be tightly shorn within 1 week of weigh-in. This is NOT Negotiable! Please be honest.

9. All exhibitors will be allowed to sell one animal through the auction. With the exception that the exhibitor has shown two animals, and each has placed in the top ten of its species, then both animals are permitted to sell in the auction.

10. FFA and 4-H exhibitors may enter no more than two market animals. The animals may be from one species or a combination of two species.

11. Animals that do not make weight (either over or under) can be shown in Showmanship and the Prospect class for each species. You will NOT be able to show in the Market Classes, progress to the Star round, or go through the Livestock Sale.

12. Exhibitors must SHOW THEIR OWN animals in the Show Ring. If unable to do so for any of the following reasons, a substitute exhibitor may be obtained:

a) Death in the immediate family.

b) Verified medical condition.

13. The Livestock President shall have the right to refuse the entry of any animal, which in their judgment, is unworthy of exhibition for injury or illness, or which may be a menace to the physical/medical safety of other livestock, the exhibitors, or spectators.

14. An animal judged to be sick or infectious will not be allowed to remain on the fairgrounds, including goats, lambs, or breeding sheep showing signs of a contagious disease (such as fungus). Lambs or goats showing signs of currently being prolapsed, or an open sore on the dock (rosebud) will not be permitted to show. No animals with open wounds will be permitted. These animals need to leave the show barn and fairgrounds immediately, so they do not infect other animals.

15. Male animals must be castrated.

16. Animals must remain in livestock area throughout the duration of the fair, ABSOLUTLY NO taking animal back to livestock trailer or out of designated livestock areas during fair!

17. ALL exhibitors will be ASSIGNED a pen/stall for their animal in the appropriate area for that species and must remain in their assigned pens or stalls for the duration of the Livestock Show. Designated areas for show boxes and fitting stands/chutes are provided. Be considerate of other exhibitors when deciding how much room you need for your fitting stands/show boxes, etc. SHOW BOXES/CHUTES ARE NOT PERMITTED IN THE Event Center/Warm Up Barn PRIOR TO 7:00 A.M. TUESDAY, AUGUST 6, 2024.

18. ALL PENS/STALLS WILL BE CLEANED BY EXHIBITOR UPON CHECK-OUT, THIS IS MANDATORY! IF PEN/STALL IS LEFT DIRTY EXHIBITOR WILL BE CHARGED A $75 CLEANING FEE THAT WILL BE TAKEN OUT OF THEIR SALE CHECK. THIS WILL BE STRICTLY ENFORCED! PENS WILL BE PRE-ASSIGNED. LET'S ALL DO OUR PART AND CLEAN UP AFTER OURSELVES

the Species Chairperson for your division, the Livestock Committee President, or the Livestock Coordinator.

22. The use of dyes, spray paint, or other artificial coloring which result in altering an animal's true and natural appearance and/or color is prohibited. No decorating of the animal using ribbons, paints, costumes, glitter, etc. will be allowed on sale day.

23. All animals must be presented for the competition when called, there will be two (2) class calls. One to be on deck and the other to enter the ring. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to listen for your classes being announced.

24. Spectators will not be allowed in the Show Ring.

25. The decision of the Judge is FINAL.

26. Direct criticism or interference with the judge, show management, other exhibitors, breed representatives, or show officials before, during, or after the competitive event is Prohibited.

27. Every Exhibitor is required to provide their animals for Jr. Judging if asked to do so. This is NOT-Negotiable! The judge picks the classes, please be compliant.

28. Classes will be posted as soon as they are completed. NO information on classes will be available until the livestock president has verified all the information. Failure to cooperate with this matter will only prolong the process. PLEASE BE PATIENT! 😊

29. ONCE A CLASS HAS BEEN PLACED AND IT IS DETERMINED THAT THERE IS A DISQUALIFICATION OF A PLACING ENTRY, ALL PRIZES AWARDED TO THAT PLACED ENTRY ARE DEEMED FORFEITED AND ALL REMAINING PLACED ENTRIES WILL BE ADJUSTED UP TO FILL THE VACATED PLACING.

30.  Portfolio's are MANDATORY! 4-Her's will be following the State 4-H Format of submitting a Cover Letter and Resume (Portfolio) for their animal(s). FFA members will be required to submit the FFA AET Record Book. Due by July 22, 2024**

a) Duchesne County Livestock Show (Portfolio's)4-H Resume and Cover Letter and FFA Record Books, will be due two weeks before the start of the Duchesne County Fair for judging. 4-H Resumes and Cover letters can be submitted at the Duchesne (20716 E. River Road, Duchesne) USU Extension Office or by email to duchesnecountyextension@gmail.com. FFA Record books should be turned in to your local advisor. They must be turned in on or before the due date of July 22nd to be eligible to participate in the Premier Exhibitor Award. Exhibitors who do not have an up to date 4-H Resume and Cover Letter or AET Record book, by weigh-ins will be disqualified from the market division and auction (NO EXCEPTIONS) but will still be allowed to compete in the showmanship division.

b) Exhibitors are responsible for picking up their physical Resume's and FFA AET Record books. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to keep track of their 4-H resumes and FFA record books. We feel that this educational addition to our youth market animal projects will increase the quality of our exhibitors and better prepare our youth to become better livestock producers in the future. You can pick up Portfolio's Thursday August 8th after the Market shows.

31. Dress Code:

* 4-H: A white long or short sleeve shirt which fastens down the front and has a collar is mandatory. There is to be a 4-H emblem or patch on all 4-H member's left shoulder of their shirt.

* FFA: Either white shirt and tie and FFA jacket or white shirt with FFA emblem and tie.

-The following will NOT be allowed: T-shirts, tank tops, tube tops, sleeveless shirts or shirts with logos, shorts, and no open toed shoes. Exhibitors who fail to abide by dress standards will forfeit prize money.

32. To file an official protest/complaint, you must submit a written letter of complaint/protestation with a fee of $100.00 CASH, to the Livestock Committee President. Your fee will be forfeited if protest/complaint is not sustained.

33. By entering your livestock project in the Duchesne County Fair Livestock Show, you and those associated with you agree to abide by the rules and regulations of the Duchesne County Fair Livestock Show.

34. ANY FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH ANY APPLICABLE DUCHESNE COUNTY FAIR LIVESTOCK SHOW RULES MAY RESULT IN DISQUALIFICATION FROM PARTICIPATION IN THE SHOW FOR THE YEAR IN WHICH THE VIOLATION OCCURS AND THE EXHIBITOR WILL FORFEIT ALL AWARDS AND/OR PROCEEDS. THE EXHIBITOR MAY ALSO BE DISQUALIFIED FROM PARTICIPATING IN THE FUTURE.

SPECIAL RULES OR CONDITIONS ARE PUBLISHED IN EACH DIVISION WHERE NECESSARY. IF THERE IS A CONFLICT BETWEEN THE SPECIAL RULES OF ANY DIVISION AND THE GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS, THE SPECIAL RULES WILL GOVERN.

Drug Rule

To foster fair competition, to provide a level playing field and to protect the safety of food the following will be strictly abided by:

1. The use of animal drugs or other substances in any manner other than in accord with the labeling approved by FDA is a violation of federal law. The exhibitor and exhibitor's parents and/or guardians are absolutely and completely responsible for the care and custody of their animal while at the County Fair/Fairgrounds/Etc. The showing of any animal that has been administered during its life any quantity of any unapproved drug, chemical or medication is strictly prohibited. Such drugs include, but are not limited to, any diuretic, tranquilizers and sedatives, unapproved growth stimulant or other unapproved medication.

b. Unapproved means not approved by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) and or the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) for slaughter including animals that may be destined for human consumption.

c. All animals must remain free and clear of all drug and chemical residues while at the Duchesne County Fair. As a condition for participation in the Jr. Livestock Show and Sale, the exhibitor, and their parents and/or guardians must agree to submit any animal entered for inspection. They agree to have such animal submitted to any tests requested by the show management. The show management specifically reserves the right to have tissue, hair, blood, or urine laboratory analysis made on any animal entered for competition. The conclusions reached by the laboratory shall be final and binding without recourse against the show management.

d. If an exhibitor's animal tests positive for any unapproved drug, even if the exhibitor and the exhibitor's parents or guardians are innocent of any wrongdoing and did not administer the drug, or even if the source of the drug is unknown, the exhibitor shall be disqualified. An exhibitor of an animal that is found to be unethically fitted and or tests positive for any drug or medication or unapproved chemical shall forfeit all rights and privileges to exhibit livestock in the future at the Duchesne County Fair. This will be a lifetime ban. The exhibitor will also be required to forfeit all premiums, awards, recognition, and auction proceeds. If the animal has been sold through the Jr. Livestock Auction, auction proceeds shall be returned to the buyer/supporter.

e. Exhibitor shall be responsible for all damages to persons or property that results from any drug, medication or other unapproved chemical and shall defend and indemnify Duchesne County and the Livestock Committee for all claims and expenses that arise from this section.

f. In the event an exhibitor has been banned under this section and can demonstrate exigent circumstances warranting a reinstatement, the exhibitor may petition the Duchesne County Jr. Livestock Committee in writing. If the Committee believes that there are exigent circumstances that may qualify for a reinstatement, the Committee may appoint a three-member board that will hear the evidence and render a decision. This board's decision shall be binding and final.
